“ I remember the first time I met Sam, I was visiting from Chicago, my nephew Angelo was there also. Sam was four, Angelo five. I was trying to get a little sleep and those boys jumped on the bed ran around and started playing. I was laughing so hard. Sam said to me get up and let's play some more, your on vacation. He was the sweetest soul. His mother and my dear cousin Charlotte was having a party for him. He was so excited to have his friends come over .He shared with his friends and was so kind and loving and didn't want the day to end.

Sam you will be truly missed, my heart aches for your mother and dad. God called you home on Monday Sam, he must have big plans for a fine young man like you.

I will miss you to cousin, I know you are with Jesus now
