“Tribute to a Fine Lady. Two qualities stood out with this special person. Love and Caring. After serving in the Military I went straight to my Brother (Rayfords) home in Michigan. Without hesitation Frances cheerfully invited my temporary stay in her home. She possessed a calm demeanor, especially with her two young Sons Ray and Brod. No matter how rowdy they were she counseled with love and not with force. I thought how very fortunate my Brother was to have such a beautiful wife and family. She was the Anchor that kept the Family on a steady path of positive growth. We all agree she is with our Master and once again united with her loved ones. We cherish our memories of her and will miss her with all our hearts.

“Granny’s love for all of us has always been unconditional. She loved with her whole heart. She loved a long life filled with wonderful memories with her beloved family. She will be missed so very much. She is now in heaven with her husband and son looking down on us with love as our guardian angel.”
