“ *Standing, walking, reading, for a moment, sharing but a snapshot, a burst, of what I was feeling, so small compared to the enormity the reality of your loss,
Feeling so small, Thinking of what her loss means to me, Reading so many stories, so many telling words
The loves she touched, changed for the better, truly.*

*We have many people in our lives
Family, neighbors and friends
But no one knows us quite as well
Or shares our deepest secrets
Like a life-long friend,
Friends are a gift from God
They bring us joy and happiness
And help us in times of need
That's why I can truly say
How glad I am I had this friend.*

Scarlet had a joy in her heart, and brothers who love her with all their souls, and a mother's love that help her thru life. a loving husband that stood by her side thru the years and raised a beautiful daughter.

Our faith is certainly tested at times like this. I know it is difficult to understand a loss like this, but we need to be mindful of the true blessing that she was to us. That should give us the strength to continue on in faith knowing that she would want us to honor her memory in this way.

I pray that God's choicest blessings will be bestowed on you and your wonderful family. May God grant you the peace and strength to carry on in faith.

God Bless.
