“ It still just doesn't seem real. I keep trying to wrap my mind around it and it just doesn't happen. The first baby I ever held was Shay. The first diaper I ever changed was Shay. I used to pick her up on my off day and keep her just to spend time with her. She was a precious baby, a precious child and a precious adult. Honest to a fault and such a beautiful spirit. My Daddy met her at Heaven's gate and welcomed her home...of that I have no doubt. I will miss you Shay-baby.##imported-begin##Donna Davidson Hendon##imported-end##

“ Shay-
I haven't talked to you since probably junior high. I remember all of us skating around and around in circles at the Skating Rink. We all practically lived there. :)

You were too good for what happened to you, and I hope we all are reminded of how precious life is and that we all love each other more than ever to honor you.

AJ and Julie, I will keep you in my prayers and hope you can find some peace and comfort in time. Shay was obviously loved by so many, and hope we all keep her memory alive for years to come.##imported-begin##Amber (Bryan) Arthur##imported-end##
