“ I'm so sorry for your family's loss Greg.

My parents tell me that when the Cavenders had the Dairy Queen, we went every Friday night, (apparently I was just learning to walk & talk) Mama tells me that I had to go get in their booth with them to "jabber" with them every week. And I would get them to chase me to the back and they would "sneak" me bites of ice cream. My parents said I became fast friends with them. I was only a year or two old.

I doubt Greg will remember me, but I worked for his parents back in the early 90s! I was just a teenager. What I wouldn't give to go back to those days just for a little bit. Cherished memories for me.

I appreciate both Sue and Terry as well as the help Greg gave me during that time learning to navigate in the workforce. My sincere condolences, prayer's & positive vibes for you and your family's loss.
