“ A memory? I have so many memories with you that are to many to share! You was not only my mother but my best friend! I could talk to you about anything and you may not could always give me an answer or the answer I wanted but you always did your best to make me feel better! There is so much I'm gonna miss out on you not being here with us anymore! But you will always be in our hearts and in our thoughts mama! I never thought we would lose you this early but we can't choose who leaves and who stays! God needed you more than we did! We wasn't ready to give you up but, god was ready for you to come home! This is only for a short time and I promise I will see you again and I'm gonna hug you and never let you go this time!!! I love you mama and I miss you every minute of every day! Goodbye mama until we meet again

“ I remember the very first time going to Florida for a week to visit with Papaw, Betty, Uncle James, Aunt Susan, Aunt Debbie and Tim(Don't call him uncle because my brother and Tim is the same age and I am older then Tim). While we was down there Aunt Susan and Aunt Debbie decided we needed to go for a walk so we went well needless to say we came up on a snake those two ran off and left me behind. So for the rest of the visit I didn't get to far from the house. Growing up I couldn't wait to see and spend time with them because Aunt Susan and Aunt Debbie was something else.

“ I will never forget when you went with us to find out if we were having a boy or girl you were so excited and you couldn't wait to start telling people. I also can't forget the day Chandler came into the world you came in my room before I had him and you were just so happy and you cried because you thought I was in pain. I was in a little pain but not unbearable. You cared so much for each and every person and we all love you so much. Thank you for raising such a handsome, caring son that I am so proud to call my husband and my best friend. Also, thank you for instantly accepting me as part of your family. You always made me feel so welcome. I love you more than words and Chandler and TJ does to.... you will be greatly missed but never forgot <3
