“ Susie you once told us , when we left our son with your lovely family so far from home , not to worry you would treat him as one of your own. You and Jeff cared for him just like a son and for this we will be forever grateful . Now its our turn to tell you we will look after Jess in your absence , she will be looked after as one of our own . We will love and protect her to the best of our ability . Rest in peace Susie We will miss you

“ I got to know Susie through my best friend Rhonda. Susie was always so much fun to be around. I'd say she was full of joy! I prayed for her to be comforted after Jeff's passing and God saw fit to bring them together again. I know being without her will leave a void, but we know she loved the Lord so we will see her again. I'll be praying for her children and brothers and sisters in law. May God give you peace as you recall sweet memories of Susie.
