“ Oh Connie,
My heart breaks for you and your family. My and Nilda's prayers are for you and those who support you and grieve your loss on this sad day. It is never easy to lose those we love but I can only imagine how you must feel today. I personally feel that God loves each of us but He has a special place in his heart for those who love enough to grieve the passing of another. Especially, the spouse, the siblings, the children and the grandchildren. It is sometimes hard to understand why we have to endure such pain in this life but in the end it all comes round for each of us, as is ordained and we can only hope that Watts is resting in the arms of Jesus tonight. May God bless you and all those you love in this time of grief.
Humbly and sincerely
