“ Tammy was an amazing woman. She was so kind, and I loved being around her. Amber and Leigha, words can not express how much my heart breaks for you two. I know you were both so close to her. I love you both, and please take care of yourselves. I know it is hard, but I am here to talk if you need me.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I have known her since I was 13 and always looked up to her and always let me know I could talk to her about anything I needed to and she would never judge. Girls, I'm at a loss for words for what I should say. I just know she loved you both so very much! Every time I saw her she made sure to tell me all that was happening in her babies lives. Proud to have know her and I will miss her!

“ Tammy was my manager at Hibbetts. I worked closely beside her. She was a sweet, funny, and caring. She came in and was like a mother figure to all of us. She managed us, gave advice, lended a helping hand and also a shoulder to cry on when needed. I'm glad we were able to cross paths in this lifetime and I will miss her dearly. My condolences to her family and friends you all are in my prayers.
