“ To my dearest friend and her wonderful family. I can think of a thousand wonderful memories of Ted. Honest and true, I never remember him saying anything that didn't need to be said. You listened as a teenage girl when he was going to say something because you knew it was worth listening to. I can see him still sitting in his boat teaching us about the lake and its surroundings. If I could say one thing to you all it is that memories are a gift from God. Our loved ones live forever not only in the kingdom of God but in our hearts and minds as well.
I love you Emily, Janice and family##imported-begin##Kaila Cooper and Jody Cromwell##imported-end##
