“ I’m heartbroken to hear about Jerry's passing. I’m thinking of your family as you celebrate the life of such a kind and beautiful soul. I will always remember seeing Jerry running with such joy and determination.

Jerry's s dedication and spirit through the years was an inspiration to everyone who knew him. He will be deeply missed.

I hope you all find comfort in knowing that he is finally free from pain and running on perfect trails and pavement. A runners final finish line is not an end, but a transition to the great eternal beginning.

Jerry's spirit now lingers in the morning mist and the evening sunset. May your memories bring you peace and comfort.

R.I.P. Jerry Run Happy, Run Free.
