“ We all loved Tierra so much. When she found a house to rent in Russellville she was so excited. But before they even could get stuff to move in, besides clothes, she had got sick & ended up having to have emergency surgery & was took to Huntsville from Helen Keller. She was there a few days. Our lil circle of friends jumped into action. We got the kids, made sure they were fed n took care of and we got her house ready for her. Finding, buying, moving furniture, running around like chickens to make sure that house was ready when she got released from the hospital. We stayed there to take care of the kids and didn't hardly get any sleep. But no one complained one bit because it was for OUR FRIEND TIERRA. When she got released and got to come home when she walked through that door, the look on her face was priceless. She didn't have to do nothing but walk in and lay down on the couch to rest and recover. We was all crying like babies, but it was happy tears. She was the best lead over our department, but she was an even better friend. May you rest in peace sweet girl love you miss you always.~ Danielle
