You were more than great. You raised me. You said before that you felt like I was your kid and you showed it in more way's than I could say...I used every muscle I had lifting that caustic as if I was the only one lifting it. I don't like shedding tear's to be seen but I can't hide all of them. Thank you for acting like my real mother when I never got to see my real mother....I mean all of this. You are in heaven no dault...I'll never forget you.
