“ I would like to offer my deepest sympathies to you. Although we haven't met, all of us have experienced the loss of a loved one. I recently lost my mother and know the pain of a broken heart. Our Heavenly Father feels our pain. Psalms 34:18 assures us that He is near to those broken at heart. He does, however, hold out a promise that in the very near future He will wipe out all tears of sorrow and pain from our eyes and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3-5) He also promises to remember all those in the memorial tombs (graves) and restore them to life. (John 5:28,29) Until those words are fulfilled, may you find much peace and comfort in God and in His promises found in the Holy Scriptures.

“ I remember one Halloween he knew me and Aunt Carol and Tracy Steele was going to roll his yard during Halloween so he hid on his porch with this cookie jar that was a cow that moo'd and when Tracy got on the porch to roll it he would open the cookie jar lid and he scared her so bad he couldn't stop laughing at her that night and then after every time he seen her he would moo like a cow!!! I love and miss you Verbon Adair
