“ My precious childhood friend and next door neighbor, i just found out you went to heaven. So many memories, riding motorcycles, swimming and fishing in the creek behind our house, running through the woods as kids, your were the sweetest boy, i shall never forget your grin and the memories i have of you, my brother Lambert and Roger, the best of times. Through as adults we did not see each other much, we all had families as went on, my heart never forgot those days, some of the happist days of my childhood, My prayers are with you beautiful family. I will see you again my friend. Connie Garrison Maggerise.
