“ Wade and I were distant cousins. We went to Tupelo to the gun show earlier this year. My great grandmother was Mary Emma Oden Long, married to Albert Sterling Long, from Haleyville, Al. Both are buried at Prospect Baptist Church, Haleyville, Al. Wade was a wonderful person and a very dear friend. I will miss our talks we would have about gun collecting and family. My thoughts and prayers are with his family. I hate to hear of his passing. I just learned of his passing today when I was trying to locate where he lived. Thankful to have had him as a cousin and friend. Prayers.

“ Wade was always a good person. When Wade stayed with us in Illinois - doing drywall with our Dad and Uncle - when I was about 10 or 11, I thought the world of him. And that really never changed. Good heart, good work ethic and all around great person.
