“ So, so sorry to hear of Mr. Wallace's passing. He was a very, very, special person to me and to a lot of people in this community. He loved Haleyville and was proud to say that he was from Haleyville. What will we do without him on alumni weekends? He is having a joyous celebration everyday in heaven!!! I can't wait! Peace and comfort to all of his family.
Many prayers for all of you!
Much love.....

“ I pray for comfort and peace for the family of mr.george during this saddest of days. May the Lord be with you. Mr.George was always very kind to me, and enjoyed our conversations with him at the library and at Mr.Albrights store. When ever he would see us in town he always had kind words to say. He will be missed very much. what a good man who did great things for the citizens of Haleyville. God bless his family and may he rest in peace forever with the Lord.###imported-begin##Pamela Hill###imported-end##
