He has served as the Director for the Yellow Creek Youth Camp numerous times. Throughout his tenure as a pastor, he led many souls to Christ.

Brother Boyles loved his family dearly and especially enjoyed spending time with his grandsons and granddaughter. He always made time for anyone who needed to share their burdens or sorrows, or just needed an encouraging word from him. It was often said he never met a stranger. His warm smile and easy laugh will be missed by all who knew him.

I learned last night (March 27) that Bro. Boyles went to be with the Lord. We were aware of his illness, but did not know he was close to the end.
He was a great man, great preacher and a great friend. We were blessed when he came and preached a revival at Spiro for us...and you came I believe.
Our thoughts and prayers are with you. May the Lord bless you and comfort you is our prayer.

“ I first met Bro. Wayne when I was 22 years old and his life and preaching made a huge impact on me. In 1984 he was the President of O.B.I. where he became my instructor. Later we were both pastoring in Alabama, where he became my mentor and best friend. I've traveled across this nation and half way around the world with him. Almost every week I would have one day that we met at McDonalds to solve the world's problems and discuss the Bible. I could go to him in confidence about anything and he would give me advice that I needed to hear. He asked me the questions at my ordination and preached at our church the Sunday of my 25th anniversary as pastor. I can't express what he and Miss Martha has meant to my wife and I. I miss him greatly already and look forward to seeing him again. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. I love you too Miss Martha.##imported-begin##Bro. David E. Gregg##imported-end##
