“ Patricia and all of the Campbell family, I just looked at the funeral announcements (Thursday 10:30 p.m.) and read that your Sweet Precious Daddy has gone to be with the Lord. My heart is heavy and I am wiping away the tears, but they are tears of joy because I know that he is home and feeling no pain. There are people in our lives that touch us in ways that we don't always understand. Mr. Campbell was one of those. When he walked into my house it was always with a big smile, a "Good morning" or "afternoon," and then he would begin working to fix whatever needed fixing, BUT not without whistling a beautiful tune. He was Special. I told him time and time again that "A man that whistles when he works is a Happy Man." And he was just that -a Happy Man. I am so sorry your loss, but joyous for Heaven's gain. There will be sweet memories of Wayne Campbell in the Sanders family for years to come. May God bless and comfort each of you in the days, weeks, and months ahead. You will be in our thoughts and prayers.

*Love in Christ,

“ *Larry and the rest of the family, You know how much your dad and I thought of each other. In our childhood we were just like brothers. Wayne would call me on his birthday to let me know he was just a few days older than I since my birthday was on July 1st, he always got a kick out of that. I loved him so much and can remember the times we had growing up together and then on into adult hood. We are going to miss him but at least we know where he is and that he is happy to be with your mom. We (Elvie Ann and I) are not going to be able to come for we have about 3 inches of ice and can 't get anywhere, but our hearts and love will be with you all and especially our prayers will be with you all during this time. Hope that we will be able to have a reunion this summer and that all of you can come to see us in Tennessee. Our love and prayer
