“ Pat, Ken & family. I am so sorry for the passing of you mother. Pat, while we were growing up, I truly remember how sweet and kind you mom always was to all us youngsters & I'm sure that took a great deal of patients, knowing the way we were at times (LOL). If Ms. Wilene could be described with one word, it would be "KIND." She had so much of a kind heart, that even as children, we knew she was a good woman. Never a harsh word. I also remember what a champion she was for Christ. She definitely had an influence on me as I grew up in the FBC. I remember her being there in our Sunday school classes, in "RA's" and of course, in Vacation Bible school? She gave a tremendous amount of herself to the Lord's work. She might not have realized it, at the time, but all of that really mattered to so many of us as kids & I'll never forget her. Pat, I know you can't describe the loss in your heart and I don't look forward to the day I have to deal with much of the same...(Thank God for my mother!) All I can remind you of is something you already know... Very soon, there'll be a great reunion and THAT'S what we MUST look forward too. Ya'll will surly remain in our thoughts and prayers. I pray that God will continue to bless you and your's as he has me and mine. Patrick, email me if you get a chance.

“ Taylor. Way back in 1983, I met Mawmaw and Pawpaw Taylor in New Orleans. They would arrive on the seminary campus with a trunk full of food and hearts full of love for Ken and Sheila and those two little boys named Justin and Jonathan. Mawmaw would run inside and start the hugs while Pawpaw would begin the forty plus trips from the trunk to the kitchen. I never remember them having a suitcase. Their love for God and for each other and for family and for others was so evident. As of yesterday, those two have been reunited in Heaven. Mawmaw you are loved by so many. We see you in your sons and in their children who all have names that begin with J like Jesus.##imported-begin##Becky Brown##imported-end##
