“ I remember riding with Uncle Bert (in his bright and shiny Plymouth) to see his main squeeze! Man, we were riding in style!!! This happened before they were married! I also remember being at the house behind the store and eating brains and scrambled eggs! Ugh! I didn't know but I knew they were all watching me! I think they were trying to get rid of me, I was so mean! What great memories! I survived the brains and I know that's why I am soo smart!!!

“ I never knew Aunt Ruth's first name was Zara. What a lovely name. It has been seven years since I visited with her and I remember how well she looked. She was always quiet and kind to us. Ruth was a special person to the Lillie Chandler Chastain family and I won't forget her.
